

The Masters Corner

Pg.1 November 2017

Six 7 brothers it's that time of year again...where our waistlines get wider and our daylight gets thinner. Let's continue to be Thankful for the beauty that the Grand Architect has allowed use to witness each day.

My November Guest

My sorrow, when she's here with me,
Thinks these dark days of autumn rain
Are beautiful as days can be;
She loves the bare, the withered tree;
She walks the sodden pasture lane.

Her pleasure will not let me stay.
She talks and I am fain to list:
She's glad the birds are gone away,
She's glad her simple worsted gray
Is silver now with clinging mist.

The desolate, deserted trees,
The faded earth, the heavy sky,
The beauties she so truly sees,
She thinks I have no eye for these,
And vexes me for reason why.

Not yesterday I learned to know
The love of bare November days
Before the coming of the snow,
But it were vain to tell her so,
And they are better for her praise.

- Robert Frost

Brothers we have some trying times ahead of us coming out of an election where a human being like Donald Trump was awarded the opportunity to lead our free world. Yet, I'm inspired by the renewed sense of urgency that people of this nation are displaying to UNITE as ONE. We play a particular role in this movement, as we are viewed as leaders OF our communities.

It's imperative that we lead the way and shine our light even more during these times. Our organization is galvanized by Faith, Hope & Charity.... We are obligated to live within these principles so others have a chance to receive the same.

There is nothing more frightening than a man with no HOPE.
